NO MORE GRAY OR FADED HAIR

Women and men who use PARISIAN Sage can be sure their hair will never turn gray.

PARISIAN Sage will preserve the natural color of the hair; stop it from becoming faded and lifeless, and by nourishing the hair root give to the hair a lustre and radiance that compels admiration.

PARISIAN Sage stops falling hair; banishes dandruff; makes the scalp clean and free from itching and promotes a growth of heavy hair.

THE MEN WHO SUCCEED

as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, to-day, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Charles B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders, and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. THE RUTLAND AVIATOR SCHMITT, who has been giving exhibitions at the Rutland carnival Thursday evening, a bomb, which had failed to explode in the air, burst in front of the face of Miss Lena Sherman of Springfield, Mass., who was visiting Rutland friends, and her face was so badly burned that she may be permanently disfigured. Charles Tyrell, who stood near her, was not injured, though his coat caught fire.

One of the commissary wagons connected with the 10th cavalry, colored, on their way from Rutland fair to Fort Ethan Allen, went through a bridge three miles south of Middlebury, Saturday, falling about 12 feet to the bed of the creek, a branch of East Middlebury river. The driver, Herbert Spencer, of Troop I, colored, had one arm broken and was otherwise seriously injured. He was taken to the Fort by train. The wagon was a wreck and one of the four miles may have to be shot.

Mrs. Crissana Bailey Whiting, aged 101 years and five months, the oldest resident of Bellows Falls, and said to be the oldest woman in Vermont, died of senility at her home last week after an illness of several months. Until the time of her illness, she had enjoyed the best of health, although her eyesight was somewhat impaired. She was a great reader and had a fine memory and took keen interest in the affairs of the day. Mrs. Whiting was born in West Moreland, N. H., and when six years of age moved with her family to Saxtons River. At the age of 20 she began teaching school at 38 cents a week, which was an advance of eight cents a week over that paid the teacher in the preceding term. On December 1, 1842, she was married to John G. Whiting, who died in 1883.
